

Senior Consultant in Obstetrics and Gynecology at the Hospital Clinic Barcelona and Associated Professor at the University of Barcelona Medical School. Trained in Fetal Medicine at Queen Charlotte's and Chelsea Hospital of London, he has been on sabbatical studies in the Karolinska Institute Hospital, at Brigham & Women's Hospital, and at Mount Sinai Hospital Toronto. Interested in the fields of Fetal Medicine, Reproductive Genetics and Prenatal Diagnosis, particularly in ultrasound markers for fetal aneuploidy, early prenatal screening and genetic testing. Treasurer of the International Society for Prenatal Diagnosis (ISPD), Chairman of the Fetal Ultrasound ISPD special interest group, President of the Catalan Section of Ultrasound and Fetal Medicine and advisor of the Catalan Health Department, has authored more than 100 peer reviewed international scientific publications.